The buyer pays a reservation fee of €6,000, into the seller's representative's client account. Upon signing, the seller provides the buyer with all the necessary documentation for due diligence. Private Purchase Contract After due diligence is completed and both parties agree on terms, they sign a Private Contract. At this stage, the buyer pays 10% of the purchase price, minus the previously paid reservation fee. This payment is deposited into the seller's representative's client account. Signing the Public Deed The buyer's legal representative arranges the Notary appointment and coordinates with the seller's representative. The public deed of sale is signed before a Notary. Standard practice is payment by bank-certified cheque upon signing. Costs & Responsibilities Buyer: pays all administrative costs related to the transfer of ownership (taxes, Notary, registry, etc.). Seller: pays the local Plusvalía tax. Real estate agent's fee: normally deducted from the purchase price and paid by the buyer's legal representative (noted in the deed). Legal fees: each party covers their own. Prorated costs: such as IBI and other prepaid expenses, are usually adjusted between buyer and seller at completion.

Post-Sale Obligations The buyer has 2 weeks to change utility contracts. The buyer registers the change of ownership in the Land Registry. Current Registry Notations The property currently carries a mortgage notation, which is in the process of being cancelled. Spanish Civil Code, Article 1454: "If earnest money or a deposit has been provided in a contract of sale and purchase, the contract may be rescinded by the purchaser by forfeiting the deposit, or by the seller by refunding double the amount." Payments Purchase Price: €695,000.00 Reservation Fee: €6,000.00 10% Deposit: €69,500.00 – €6,000.00 already paid = €63,500.00 Final Payment: €625,500.00 Buyer Requirements NIE (Spanish Tax Identification Number for non-Spanish citizens): Required. Can be obtained by the buyer's representative with a Power of Attorney. Digital Certificate: Strongly recommended for easier communication with Spanish tax authorities. Spanish Bank Account: Recommended for automatic payment of taxes and utilities. Buyer's Transaction Costs (Estimated) Purchase Price: €695,000.00 Transfer Tax (7% ITP): €48,650.00 Notary Fees (est.): €900.00 Land Registry Fees (est.): €800.00 Legal Administration Fees (est.): €3,000.00 Total Transaction Costs: €53,350.00 Overall Cost: €748,350.00 Transaction Costs (% of Price): 7.68% Mortgage & Valuation (Tasación) If financing is required, the buyer's bank must commission an official property valuation by a licensed technical architect. Valuations are generally conservative (10–15% below market value). Banks usually lend up to 70% of the valuation. If the valuation is higher than the purchase price, the bank will use the lower figure. Valuation cost: approx. €400 for an apartment. Additional costs: Notary, Land Registry, Stamp Duty, and bank fees. Transfer Tax (ITP) – Andalucía Currently set at 7%, applied to the higher of the purchase price or the official "Valor de Referencia" of the property.
